Altschul explained how he was saved from the Holocaust through the waters of Oresund (Copenhagen to Malmo); venturing to USA and God lead him in a successful publishing business; then God called him to ministry.

One of the attending evangelist commented, "God has put such an anointing of the Holy Spirit on this servant of God, that in normal conversation with Pastor Altschul, you hear the love of God." Another local pastor and his wife shared that that they continue in ministry so much without seeing change in their congregations; but now after hearing Pastor Bent speak they felt hope again and experienced a lightening in their hearts and stated joyously, "Now we are ready to go on in God's service."

According to Altschul, "Personal ministry by the Holy Spirit gives pastors the time to receive refreshment, renewal and encouragement." Throughout the event Pastor Altschul passionately encouraged the pastors and leaders in their God-calling to care for God's people.

Another pastor testified that he had been receiving touches from the Holy Spirit since Pastor Bent opened the meeting, others felt infilling of the Holy Spirit as well. One of the co-hosting local pastors reported, "...there is nothing greater than touching these lives with the Holy Spirit -- this was absolutely a successful event."
